

Oppenheimer Legacy: South Carolina the Center of the New Nuclear Arms Race

- Discussion on Zoom with experienced panel followed by audience Talk-Back (Q & A) about facts, myths, and ethics faced by Oppenheimer and us today concerning nuclear weapons
- Three Guest Panelists: Tom Clements, Director of Savannah River Site Watch in South Carolina; Jay Coghlan, Executive Director, Nuclear Watch New Mexico, who just visited Hiroshima & Nagasaki; and David Matos, President, Carolina Peace Resource Center
- A major focus will be the Department of Energy's (DOE) proposed facility for plutonium pit production at the DOE's Savannah River Site near Aiken, SC, to make the plutonium cores for new nuclear weapons

Date: Wednesday, August 16
Time: 7 – 8:30pm EST

Register now and claim your spot for this event:

https://sierraclub.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJ0qcOirrT4jGdd6_L0523gmv5lLoYGrfdix

Contact info: Pamela Greenlaw at 803-394-5134 or pkgreenlaw2022@gmail.com

Hosted by Midlands Group Sierra Club and South Carolina Chapter of Sierra Club

